It should be noted that the scope of this register includes only those properties which have been assessed as, in the opinion of Council officers, meeting the legal tests for common good property. This assessment is based on the state of knowledge of such officers at the time of assessment, both as to the extent of Council ownership and the facts and circumstances surrounding individual properties. This assessment is therefore subject to change, in particular should relevant information come to the attention of officers or should there be any developments in the law relating to common good. The Council therefore reserves the right to amend this register at any time.
