

A GUIDE TO PRIMARY CARE

VACCINATIONS

For more information
on Primary Care
services please scan:

Vaccinations

NHS Scotland provides a number of Vaccination programmes to protect local populations against disease.

Vaccinations are no longer carried out in GP Practices and are now offered in a variety of locations including:

- Maternity settings
- Schools
- Community clinics
- Care homes

Immunisation is the best protection against serious diseases such as measles, meningitis, flu, amongst others.

We encourage everyone who is invited to take up the offer of vaccination.

fitfortravel

Information on how to stay safe and healthy abroad. About us.

Planning a journey abroad?

Visit www.fitfortravel.nhs.uk for advice and health information. To find out about staying healthy when travelling abroad and vaccination requirements, visit fitfortravel.

NHS inform

Search NHS inform/Services

Illnesses and conditions Symptoms and self-help Tests and treatments Healthy living

NHS Scotland offers immunisation through pregnancy, childhood, young adult and later life.

Find out about Vaccinations to prevent disease.

Further information can be found at www.nhsinform.scot/wintervaccines

Access larger print and alternative formats at: enquires@yourvoice.org.uk

NHS
Greater Glasgow and Clyde

For more information
on Primary Care
services please scan:

INVERCLYDE
HSCP
Health and Social Care Partnership