Subject: Big Lottery: Women's Project Update

1.0 PURPOSE

- 1.1 The purpose of this report is to update the Inverclyde Integration Joint Board on progress in the Women's Project.

2.0 SUMMARY

- 2.1 On 8th March 2018, Inverclyde HSCP was advised that it had been successful in a bid to the Big Lottery Early Action Systems Change Fund in the category for Women and Criminal Justice.
- 2.2 Inverclyde HSCP is the only area from across Scotland that was successful in the category of Women and Criminal Justice.
- 2.3 The purpose behind the Early Action Systems Change is to help make a fundamental shift towards effective early intervention in Scotland.
- 2.4 The Inverclyde HSCP Women's Project aims to achieve a step change in the response to women in the criminal justice system. It seeks to build this response around the women themselves and the community, with the ambition of providing women with the support they need at a time and in a way that is right for them.

3.0 RECOMMENDATIONS

- 3.1 It is recommended that the Integration Joint Board:
- a. Notes the content of the report and approves the strategic direction presented in taking forward the Women's Project.
 - b. Requests a further report that updates how the HSCP is progressing with the project.
 - c. Remits the report to the Women's Forum for its consideration.

4.0 BACKGROUND

- 4.1 The Commission on Women Offenders (2012) championed the establishment of Women's Centres, aimed at improving consistent access to a range of specific services focused on the needs of women. To date, these are located in large cities. There is a need to use learning from existing models of Women's Centres and develop a model that fits the needs of women in a small Local Authority setting.
- 4.2 Conversations with women involved in the criminal justice system in Inverclyde suggest that women have high levels of vulnerability and complex needs, as opposed to presenting a high risk of harm to others. The current intervention cycle can be one driven by crisis. In contrast, a more progressive approach would focus on early help.
- 4.3 This suggests that a broader conversation is needed, one which is not limited solely by a focus on justice. Indeed it points to a radical shift being required to the lens applied to women in the justice system to one that encompasses a public health perspective and requires a whole systems approach.
- 4.4 Following a competitive assessment and application process, the HSCP was advised on 8th March 2018 that its application for £607,250, with an additional £75,000 test of change monies had been successful.
- 4.5 The funding secured covers a five year period and is split into two parts. The first is awarded to develop and research a plan for service redesign and the second part is awarded to begin transition and implementation and is conditional on developing a viable and adequately funded design for services. The Women's Project will employ three staff: a project manager, a community worker and a data analyst to provide additional capacity to bring about this whole system change.
- 4.6 Following the award decision a project Steering Group has been established. This includes:
 - CVS Inverclyde representation;
 - Turning Point Scotland representation;
 - Your Voice representation;
 - Alcohol and Drug Partnership representation;
 - Community Justice Partnership representation;
 - HSCP representation.
- 4.7 To date, the Steering Group has developed Terms of Reference and agreed the guiding principles for the project. A development session was also held that provided an opportunity to brain-storm ideas across the key stages of the project. In addition, the Steering Group has agreed job descriptions and job specifications. Agreement has also been reached for the HSCP to host the Project Manager and Data Analyst posts while Turning Point Scotland will host the Community Worker post.
- 4.8 Currently the Steering Group is focusing on developing a Delivery Plan. This will be submitted to the Big Lottery on or before November 2018. There has also been a meeting with the Big Lottery on 11th September 2018 to clarify expectations around the content of the Delivery Plan. On approval, funding will be released and the recruitment process can begin.
- 4.9 There are six distinct phases for the project. These include:

Phase 1 – Recruitment of staff and establishing project.

Phase 2 – Research and participation of women to gain in-depth understanding of their lived experience of the criminal justice system and how this can be improved.

Phase 3 – Pulling together key findings from Phase 2 and constructing hypotheses and new models of support for women. Following stakeholder engagement, consensus will be reached on identifying one large test of change or a range of smaller tests of change.

Phase 4 – Piloting test(s) of change.

Phase 5 - Implementation of what has worked well in the tests of change.

Phase 6 – Evaluation of whole project and sustainability planning.
