3.0 BACKGROUND AND CONTEXT

3.1 The IJB is asked to note the HSCP service updates and that future papers may be brought forward to the IJB as substantive agenda items.

4.0 BUSINESS ITEMS

4.1 Delayed Discharge

Inverclyde HSCP continue to see improved performance in reducing the number of people being unnecessarily delayed in hospital.

A local representative is supporting an NHS GGC Discharge Without Delay (DWD) and Planned Date of Discharge (PDD) Task and Finish Group. The group aims to develop a consistent approach to PDD setting and reviewing, which is undertaken in partnership with HSCP's.

Additionally, this group will develop a streamlined approach to discharge planning through categorising level of need and complexity. It is believed that a consistent approach will continue to improve Inverclyde HSCP delayed discharge performance.

4.2 Kincare

To date two service users have utilised the option of Kincare to support Hospital discharge, to date. The main factor for the lower than anticipated uptake has been the complex needs of people coming home from hospital.

Many families already provide significant support with some tasks but are unable to extend this to all the support needs required.

Consideration will be given to reviewing the criteria for Kincare to extend to community cases who have more potential for independence which would reduce demand within the whole system.

Additional support will also be given to care management teams to utilise Kincare as a support option.

4.3 Homelessness Review

The Homeless Change Lead reports of positive support from a newly appointed external contractor who is undertaking an independent review of the Housing Options and Homelessness Advice Service.

Weekly meetings are now underway to review the data and contextual background of the change programme agenda with a view to developing a robust plan for moving forward and an options appraisal of alternative temporary accommodation models.

The consultant has now met with the interim Service Manager and each Team Lead and has been able to compare and contrast Inverclyde to the national housing and homelessness policy landscape and provides a positive outlook for the delivery of a modern and cost-effective service moving forward.

Initial discussions have taken place on improving choice and control for individuals who find themselves in housing crisis and attendance has been confirmed at the next Local Housing Strategy delivery group for Outcome 2: People in Inverclyde find it easier to access and sustain a home on 1 May 2024 and also, for the Social Work and Social Care Scrutiny Panel on 14 May 2024.

4.4 Care Inspectorate Report for Mental Health

The publication date of the joint inspection of adult services (mental illness) is 7 May 2024. The joint inspection of adult services (mental illness) by the Care Inspectorate and Healthcare Improvement Scotland has continued to progress, with the fourth and final partnership meeting taking place on 17 April 2024. Here, the joint inspection team met with senior managers to discuss their findings, outline their conclusions and confirm next steps. The final inspection report will be published on Tuesday 7 May 2024 and the partnership will then develop an improvement action plan based on the inspection findings. This will be submitted to inspectors by 18 June 2024 and IJB members will be provided with a more detailed input on the inspection at the next meeting of the IJB.
